

DYNAMIC PROMOTIONS

BOOKING TERMS & CONDITIONS

Our contracts are issued as confirmation of a verbal agreement between the artiste or act and management/booker

Verbal agreements are legally binding in accordance with Scottish law. Non-signature is not sufficient to cancel our agreement.

In order to ensure there are no misunderstanding of dates times etc, all verbal agreements are confirmed by the signing of a written contract.

The contract does not provide for cancellation unless agreed by all concerned parties. In the event of an agreed cancellation, a fee on the following basis will apply
If a cancellation is made within 4 weeks of the engagement, the booker/ venue will be liable to pay 100% of the remaining balance
If a cancellation is made within 8 weeks of the engagement, the booker/ venue will be liable to pay 75% of the remaining balance
If a cancellation is agreed outside of 8 weeks, we reserve the right to charge 50% against the cancelling party to cover costs incurred

Dynamic Promotions acts as a negotiator and is not responsible for non-fulfilment of contract by either party but every reasonable safeguard is assured. Wherever possible in such cases we will replace the act with one of similar price and quality.

The management and artiste agree that any FUTURE BOOKINGS arising from the engagement either directly or indirectly, within 18 MONTHS of the last performance date on the agreement, shall be negotiated through Dynamic Promotions.

In the event of illness or accident resulting in the artiste being unable to fulfil the engagement, immediate contact must be made with the management

It is the responsibility of the principles to the agreement to ensure they have adequate public liability insurance and safety documentation.

You have the responsibility to ensure the safety and well being of the booked act/ artist whilst performing at your venue/ event.

The hirer is responsible for providing a suitable area to perform and lockable changing area or room inaccessible to public.

Our contracts are issued as confirmation of a verbal agreement between the artiste or act and management/booker